

UTAH WIND & SOLAR ENERGY CONFERENCE

OCTOBER 1, 2003 • SALT PALACE CONVENTION CENTER • SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH

The Utah Energy Office and the Department of Energy present an exciting lineup of nationally recognized speakers addressing the progress of wind energy development in the United States and Utah, and ways to become involved in this trend. In addition, we will address solar energy and its applications, tour a successful solar residential site, and the Foot Creek Wind Farm in Wyoming.

WORKSHOP TOPICS INCLUDE

- Wind Energy in the State of Utah—Where is it?
- Introduction to the Utah Wind Resource Map
- Water Pumping Using Wind or Sun
- Farming the Wind—Opportunities from Wind
- Municipal and Rural Electric Utilities Integrating Wind
- Small Wind Lessons
- Renewable Energy Incentives—Utah Renewable Energy Tax Credit and Net Metering
- Photovoltaic (solar electric) Systems in Urban (utility-tied) and Remote Setting
- Passive Solar Home Design
- Thermal Solar for Water Heating and Home Heating
